

SALT LAKE DAILY HERALD.
OGDEN CITY, UTAH.
OGDEN DEPARTMENT.

The branch office of The Herald is in Room 2, building on Washington avenue, adjoining Boyle & Co's furniture store. Advertising rates will be made known upon application to the manager.

The DAILY HERALD is for sale at all news stands and by all news boys and is delivered by carrier in Ogden for 25 cents per week. Subscribers failing to receive papers promptly will confer a favor by notifying the circulation at the branch office. Subscribers are requested to make no payments to carriers or anyone else except the circulation. Parties desiring papers stopped or addresses changed must notify the branch office. M. A. LITTLEFIELD, Manager. J. C. NOBLE, Circulator.

THURSDAY, June 12, 1890.

The City in Brief.

His excellency the governor will be in Ogden today.

Company A, Utah National guards, will meet this evening for business and drill.

The Knights of Monte Cristo met on Tabernacle square last evening for cavalry drill. J. M. White in charge.

The wind raises the dust every day, but the threatened rain does not come. When the wind falls the atmosphere becomes hotter than Hades.

The case of H. J. Newman, previously mentioned in this column of THE HERALD, will be further considered in Commissioner Cross' court today.

It is said that a child of one Jones was fearfully burned by kerosene oil yesterday afternoon. This was learned too late to get any particulars.

The new Methodist church edifice is rapidly going up in the direction of the steeple dome. When completed it will be a beautiful building.

J. S. Skirshere, attorney for the Union Pacific, district of Montana, headquarters at Butte, was in the city yesterday. He left for Salt Lake last evening.

The friends of the undertaker are too numerous to mention. Their agents, pushing each a little cart and exercising his lungs, are met on almost every corner.

L. B. Parsons, of southern Utah, was in the city yesterday. He left for the west last evening to examine some mining properties in Euroka county, Nevada.

The county tax for this year is 1 1/2 mills, as against 1 1/4 mills in last year. Ogden school district levies a tax of 2 1/2 mills this year for the support of free district schools.

"This is a broad statement to make, but it is a fact nevertheless, that all classes of the people can get anything that they want in this city now, and it is getting more so every day."

"Hill" Brown, once sheriff of Weber, and City Marshal Metcalf are candidates for the sheriff's office in the Liberal ticket.

There are a score of others yet to be heard from.

In the probate court yesterday, in the matter of the estate of Luman A. Shurtliff, deceased, order appointing Levi Taylor, William Rawson and Peter Neilson appraisers of said estate.

The school elections in the five municipal wards of Ogden will take place on July 11. Two trustees will be elected in each ward and these, with the mayor as chairman, will constitute the school board.

Workmen will commence laying the foundation, next week, for the grand seven-story building of the Utah Loan and Trust company. It will be rushed to completion and finished this year.

There's a big hole in the ground on the corner of Washington avenue and Twenty-fourth street, where until a few days ago stood the old Co-op store. The Utah Loan and Trust company will fill it.

Ab Gentry, a sporting man, has commenced suit against the Madden Brothers to recover the sum of $600 which he alleges in his complaint was lost while in the care and custody of the defendants.

The Pacific Short Line officials have not yet turned up in Ogden. The last promise was that they would hold an important meeting here on the 10th. The information was given by a Sioux City paper.

Mr. Eddy, formerly of THE HERALD staff, later with the Commercial and at present telegraph editor of the Standard, will be one of the Ogden Democrat's staff. Mr. Eddy is a versatile newspaper man.

Ice cream and strawberries and cream, cakes, coffee and fresh milk. All these delicacies, served by the hands of fair maidens, at the old Fifth ward schoolhouse on Madison avenue, near Lester park, to-morrow (Friday) evening.

The Ogden hot springs, nine miles north of the city, are being well patronized these days. Two special trains go out daily, and they are generally well filled. By the way, the present proprietors of these springs are making a fine resort of the place.

The tent trade will be flat after the close of the carnival, but not on every corner of the city will have one or more. They will come handy for camping out when the red-hot days of July and August come to vex our spirits and make our starved linen wilt like frost-bitten vines under the rays of the sun.

The Rev. A. J. Bailey, of the Congregational church, came near going to kingdom come Tuesday, while passing down Ogden cañon. The accident was caused by a horse, started by a blast, which frightened the horses. He came near bucking off into the river, but fortunately stopped on the brink.

The Ogden & Hot Springs railway is creeping toward its northern terminus at a rapid gait. It will get there about the 25th instant. The Twenty-fifth street line has now reached and passed the bench canal, and a few days more will see the connection made on Nob Hill. Better late than never.

Henry Hartman, of this city, has invented and applied for a patent on every revolution in ocean navigation. It consists of an anchor-shaped screw, which is attached to the bottom of the boat in place of the keel. He thinks that with this device a speed of 100 miles an hour can be obtained.

The weather yesterday was hot. It was sultry, reminding one of summer days in the sunny south, although down in Dixie they are deprived of the pure breezes that temper the atmosphere in these mountain regions. Those who are now in Ogden from places south of Mason and Dixon's line feel quite at home here, so far as the weather is concerned.

Everybody doesn't know what a great circulation the "Giant of the Roadside" has, or else more business men outside of Salt Lake city would be more extensively represented in its advertising columns. For instance, just take THE SEMI-WEEKLY HERALD, which has a sworn circulation of over 10,000 copies per week. That's a paper that goes to the homes and fireplaces of the people, and those are the people that read advertisements and are on the lookout for bargains.

"What kid yer git a room fer in dis town?" queried a new-comer to a chance acquaintance. "If yer want a nice clean room on the bench you'll have to git deep down in yer pocket for much cash, but if you can crawl into an empty dry goods box and not get caught by the cops, you can get a room cheap—just about suited to the size of yer wallet."

"That's it, just about the size of it." "I'll hunt around by daylight and locate the box."

Tuesday evening a fire was discovered by F. H. Reeder and wife in an old wooden building on Twenty-fifth street, just about where the contemplated street is to go through block 25. No alarm was sounded, and the matter, for some reason unknown to this writer, was kept quiet until yesterday. Had the fire given less way it would certainly have cleaned out the old rookeries in the vicinity and possibly destroyed other property of real value. These wooden shanties on Twenty-fifth street should be condemned as unsafe.

Ogden bids fair to become a city of tents by the 25th instant. Thousands of tents have arrived for the use of carnival guests and these are being sprung up by our people and put up on the grounds surrounding their residences. Cots by thousands have been arriving for the Boyle Furniture company and these are being carried away and placed in the tents or houses of the inhabitants. It begins to look now as though Ogden would be able to take good care of the hosts of carnival guests, at least so far as sleeping is concerned. It is understood that all our grocers and provision dealers have ordered fresh stocks to meet the extraordinary drain that will be made upon them.

The Ogden Democrat, a daily evening newspaper, will say its last word to the journalistic ring next Monday. Well, there are lots of old-time Jeffersonian Democrats in this neck of the woods, and if they but will it so the Democrat may be made a howling success.

Robert Robinson, one of Ogden's well and most favorably known citizens, has donated the matrimonial harness of a bride was Emma B. Haller. The nuptial knot was tied by Rev. Gillespie at Brigham City.

Colonel P. J. Barrett, of the Utah National guard, has tendered to Scipio Africanus Kenner a commission as captain of Company E, which will be raised in Logan. Hope "Scipio" will accept the "commission" and head his command during carnival week.

ARE YOU AWARE

That many diseases prevail in the spring and summer? Head them off by taking Garfield Tea. Z. C. M. I., drug department. Samples free.

A LOVELY COMPLEXION

Can only be had by regulating the liver and bowels and removing the surplus of bile. Garfield Tea does it and quickly, too. The handsomest ladies of America endorse it. Z. C. M. I., drug department.

PENNY WISDOM—FOUND FOLLY.

It is foolish to save the little that Sordid cost, and suffer what will result in bad teeth and large payments to dentists. Place a bottle of it on the toilet, use five drops only of it after eating, cleanse the mouth, and show your wisdom.

The Blessing of Strong Nerves

Is a precious one, and the use of a good tonic is, but by a recourse to effectual tonic treatment. Opium and the like should only be used as auxiliaries, and then as sparingly as possible. Vigorous nerves are quiet ones, and the most direct way to render them so is to reinforce the vital energies. That sterling invigorant, Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, will be found all-sufficient for this purpose, since it entirely removes impediments to the digestion and assimilation of the food, so that the body is as sure of its due amount of nourishment, and consequently of stamina. Rheumatic tendencies and affections of the kidneys and bladder are also counteracted by the Bitters, which is a pleasant medicinal stimulant, infinitely purer than the raw exultants of commerce, which react injuriously upon the nervous system.
